

VITA

Hakan Can
Director

Hakan Can represents a new kind of European filmmaker: not limited by "one" culture. His work is characterized by atmospheric magical realism with powerful storytelling.

After studying philosophy, he was immediately into filmmaking, resulting in collaborations with international brands like Jeep, Oppo and Hyundai.

Always looking for ways to expand his horizons he explores many cultures and works with many international teams. In Between his work on long format features, Hakan keeps on shooting inspiring commercials.