Horst Czenskowski
Director

Horst Czenskowski is an internationally acclaimed director for commercials, motion and brand identity. After his studies for communication design he started his professional career as a creative director in one of Europe's leading post production companies. His special competence in the field of post production gives him a profound understanding of the integral process of multi-layered filmmaking. Horst's portfolio shows a broad diversity from high end commercials and image movies to pioneering tv branding. Especially in the tv sector he set new visual benchmarks for some of Europe's most important channels. Horst's creative vision is to focus on the authentic beauty and unique character of brands and persons.

Besides creating wonderful stories with kids who become little heroes he has worked with many popular celebrities such as Heidi Klum, Michael „Bully“ Herbig, Boris Becker or Sebastian Vettel. His clients range from big brands of various branches to the ProSiebenSat.1 network with its high profile tv channels. Horst is driven by creating innovative visual concepts with all possibilities that new technologies provide. From humorous guerilla clips to premium campaigns – he makes it happen with competence, experience and lots of passion!
