Veronika and Sven are the duo Kiss Cook Smile.

Veronika grew up in the beautiful town of Bad Aibling in Bavaria.

After finishing her degree as commercial specialist, she worked in the textile industry.

She gained a lot of experience as leading sales manager for Polo Ralph Lauren and UGG Australia, before getting her degree as specialist in e-commerce.

With her life-affirming personality and energy, she loves to bring people together and grow together.

Sven grew up in Frankfurt am Main in a very creative family.

Between fashion design, arts and crafts and the gastronomic roots of his grandparents, he was able to pursue his passion for cooking as a child, already.

For him, the kitchen is a place where good conversations take place, special moments arise, craftsmanship and intuition meet and taste and pleasure emerge.

To summarize, for him it's the place characterized by love, passion and value.
